ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

Go further. Teach deeper.

Building on your 200hr foundation, this advanced programme takes you deeper into teaching methodology, personal practice, and the rich intersection of yoga philosophy and Te Ao Māori wisdom.

WHAT'S COVERED

Programme highlights

- 8 required modules + 2 electives from 5 options
- Mantra, pranayama & meditation
- Advanced anatomy: legs/hips, spine & core, shoulders & neck
- Yoga philosophy Parts I & II — Patanjali, Bhagavad Gita, Ayurveda & ethics
- The (He)art of Sequencing — advanced vinyasa methodology

Structured as standalone modules with a hybrid learning format — in-person intensives combined with online content and monthly live wānanga — you'll explore advanced sequencing, in-depth anatomy, yoga philosophy, and the ancient wisdom that makes AWHI's training uniquely Aotearoa.

Whether you are refining your teaching or returning to deepen your own practice, this training is a soulful and rigorous next step.

- Monthly online wānanga throughout the programme
- Mentored teaching practicum
- Pathway to Yoga Alliance RYT 500 registration
- Individual modules also available for CE credits

> Our training honours Te Whare Tapa Whā — the four dimensions of hauora — weaving together ancient yoga teachings with Māori ways of knowing and being. The journey itself is the destination.
